APPENDICES A, B AND C

FIDIC was founded in 1913 by three national associations of consulting engineers within Europe. The objectives of forming the Federation were to promote in common the professional interests of the Member Associations, and to disseminate information of interest to their members. Today, FIDIC membership covers more than 60 countries from all parts of the globe and encompassing most of the private practice consulting engineers.

FIDIC is charged with promoting and implementing the consulting engineering industry's strategic goals on behalf of Member Associations. Its strategic objectives are to: represent world-wide the majority of firms providing technology-based intellectual services for the built and natural environment; assist members with issues relating to business practice; define and actively promote conformance to a code of ethics; enhance the image of consulting engineers as leaders and wealth creators in society; promote the commitment to environmental sustainability.

FIDIC arranges seminars, conferences and other events in the furtherance of its goals: maintenance of high ethical and professional standards; exchange of views and information; discussion of problems of mutual concern among Member Associations and representatives of the international financial institutions; development of the consulting engineering industry in developing countries.

FIDIC members endorse FIDIC's statutes and policy statements and comply with FIDIC's Code of Ethics which calls for professional competence, impartial advice and open and fair competition.

FIDIC, in the furtherance of its goals, publishes international standard forms of contracts for works and for clients, consultants, sub-consultants, joint ventures and representatives, together with related materials such as standard pre-qualification forms.

FIDIC also publishes business practice documents such as policy statements, position papers, guides, guidelines, training manuals and training resource kits in the areas of management systems (quality management, risk management, business integrity management, environment management, sustainability) and business processes (consultant selection, quality based selection, tendering, procurement, insurance, liability, technology transfer, capacity building).

FIDIC publications and details about events are available from the Secretariat in Switzerland. Specific activities are detailed in an annual business plan, and the FIDIC website, www.fidic.org, gives extensive background information.

No part of a FIDIC publication can be reproduced, translated, adapted, stored in a retrieval system or communicated, in any form or by any means, mechanical, electronic, magnetic, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without prior permission in writing from FIDIC. The version in English is considered by FIDIC as the official and authentic text for the purposes of translation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The widespread dissemination, acceptance and use of FIDIC publications and their translations are important means for accomplishing FIDIC's mission and are therefore actively promoted by FIDIC. The sale of FIDIC publications and their translations is an important source of revenue for FIDIC and its Member Associations. It creates resources for providing a wide range of services meeting the business needs of member firms. All steps, starting with the initial drafting of publications, often require considerable effort and expense.

FIDIC regularly updates and reissues publications so that users can profit from the state-of-the-art. By supplying publications, FIDIC does not grant any intellectual property rights. The purchase or supply of a FIDIC publication, including forms for completion by a purchaser or authorised user, does not confer author's rights under any circumstances.

Users rely on the contents of FIDIC publications, especially FIDIC contracts and agreements, for important business transactions. The use of authentic publications is therefore essential for safeguarding their interests. FIDIC discourages modification of its publications, and only in exceptional circumstances will it authorise modification, reproduction or incorporation elsewhere. Permission to quote from, incorporate, reproduce or copy all or part of a FIDIC publication should be addressed to the FIDIC Secretariat, which will decide upon appropriate terms.

A license to prepare a modified or adapted publication will be agreed to under certain conditions. Specifically the modified or adapted publication must be for internal purposes, and not be published or distributed commercially.

In the case of FIDIC contracts and agreements, FIDIC aims to provide balanced and equitable conditions of contract by ensuring the integrity of its publications. A purchaser or authorised user of a FIDIC contract or agreement is thus granted the right to:

- make a single copy of the purchased document, for personal and private use;
- incorporate in other documents (or electronic files) either the original printed document (or electronic file) or pages printed from an electronic file supplied by FIDIC for this purpose;
- draw up and distribute internally and/or among partners clearly identified Particular Conditions or their equivalent using text provided in the FIDIC publication specifically for this purpose;
- reproduce, complete and distribute internally and/or among partners any forms, in both printed and electronic formats, provided for completion by the purchaser or user.

DISCLAIMER

While FIDIC aims to ensure that its publications represent the best in business practice, the Federation accepts or assumes no liability or responsibility for any events or the consequences thereof that derive from the use of its publications. FIDIC publications are provided "as is", without warranty of any kind, either express or implied, including, without limitation, warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement. FIDIC publications are not exhaustive and are only intended to provide general guidance. They should not be relied upon in a specific situation or issue. Expert legal advice should be obtained whenever appropriate, and particularly before entering into or terminating a contract.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Fédération Internationale des Ingénieurs-Conseils (FIDIC) extends special thanks for the preparation of this Fourth Edition 2006 of the Client/Consultant Model Services Agreement to Ewan MacGregor, Griffiths and Armour, UK, who has coordinated comments from several reviewers, particularly Hans Ammendrup, Denmark, John Bowcock, UK, Axel-Volkmar Jaeger, Germany, Colin Marshall, Bahamas, Robert McKittrick, Scott Wilson, UK, Eigil Steen Pedersen, Denmark, Enrico Vink, FIDIC, and Christopher Wade, UK, in the production of this update, all of whose contributions are acknowledged.

The preparation was carried out under the general direction of the FIDIC Contracts Committee, which comprised Christopher Wade (Chairman), Nael Bunni, Axel-Volkmar Jaeger and Philip Jenkinson, together with John Bowcock and Michael Mortimer-Hawkins as Special Advisers and Christopher Seppala as Legal Adviser.

The development of the FIDIC Client/Consultant Model Services Agreement (the "White Book") started in early 1986 when Povl Ahm, Ove Arup and Partners, UK, was the Chairman of FIDIC's Client/Consultant Relationships Committee. It continued under the Chairmanship of Eigil Steen Pedersen, formerly COWI, Denmark. The document was completed and published as the 1st Edition in 1990 under the chairmanship of Mario Asin, formerly Tippetts-Abbott-McCarthy-Stratton (TAMS), USA.

Godfrey L. Ackers, formerly a Consultant to Mott McDonald, UK, and formerly a Partner of Sir Murdoch MacDonald and Partners, UK, was the principal drafter of the 1st Edition. Geoffrey Coates, formerly Chairman of Sir Alexander Gibb and Partners, was FIDIC's Executive Committee Member in charge of overseeing its preparation. Mark Griffiths, formerly Griffiths and Armour, UK, and Paul Taylor, formerly Berrymans Lace Mawer, UK, provided liability insurance and legal advice, and Mario Asin, assisted by Peter Batty, formerly TAMS and Post Buckley, USA, provided extensive reviews, comments and re-editing.

Important comments on draft versions of the 1st Edition were provided by the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank. In 1989, a particularly valuable and extremely thorough commentary on a close-to-final draft was provided by a joint committee under the coordination of Ismael El-Zabri of the Arab Fund for Economic and Social Development.

Updated editions were published in 1992, 1995 and 1998 under the responsibility of the Client/Consultant Relationships Committee chaired by Mario Asin and Peter Batty, with continuing involvement by Mark Griffiths and Paul Taylor and contributions by Hans Ammendrup, formerly Carl Bro and Dan Rail, Denmark, Pablo Bueno, Typsa, Spain, Fatma Cölasan, ODTM, Turkey, Howard Schirmer, formerly CH2MHill, USA, Charles Molineaux, Wickwire Gavin, USA, and Mahendra Raj, India.

FIDIC wishes to record its appreciation of the time and effort devoted by all the above.

The ultimate decision on the form and content of the publication Client/Consultant Model Services Agreement rests with FIDIC.

COMPLETION OF THE AGREEMENT

This Client/Consultant Model Services Agreement represents the basic form of a Contract of Appointment between a Client and his Consultant. It is intended to cover the minimum requirements of a typical appointment contract. Additional or amended clauses may be required in the Particular Conditions to address particular project and commercial issues between the parties.

Where other material is to be incorporated into a Contract of Appointment, care must be taken to ensure consistency both in the use of terminology and the allocation of duties and obligations. The parties to the contract may wish to take independent legal advice in connection with the preparation of this agreement. Independent legal advice may also help the parties understand their legal liabilities, duties and obligations arising under the Model Services Agreement.

Neither FIDIC nor any committee or individual connected with FIDIC can be held liable for project or commercial losses suffered as a result of adopting the Client/Consultant Model Services Agreement as the basis of a contractual arrangement.

FOREWORD

The terms of the Client/Consultant Model Services Agreement (the "White Book") have been prepared by the Fédération Internationale des Ingénieurs-Conseils (FIDIC) and are suggested for general use for the purposes of pre-investment and feasibility studies, designs and administration of construction and project management, both for Employer-led design teams, and for Contractor-led design teams under Design and Build procurement, where proposals for such services are invited on an international basis. They are equally adaptable for domestic agreements.

In their preparation it was recognised that while there are numerous clauses which will be generally applicable there are some provisions which must necessarily vary to take account of the circumstances and locality in which the Services are to be performed. The clauses of general application have been grouped together in this document and are referred to as General Conditions. They are intended for incorporation as printed in the documents comprising the Agreement.

The General Conditions are linked with the Particular Conditions by the corresponding numbering of the clauses, so that General Conditions and Particular Conditions together comprise the conditions governing the rights and obligations of the parties.

The Particular Conditions must be specially drafted to suit each individual Agreement and type of Service. That part of the text of the Particular Conditions which must be completed is printed on pages which should be completed for incorporation with additional clauses.

FIDIC intends to publish an updated "White Book Guide" which includes comments on clauses in the Model Services Agreement and notes towards the preparation of Appendices 1 [Scope of Services], 2 [Personnel, Equipment, Facilities and Services of Others to be Provided by the Client], 3 [Remuneration and Payment] and 4 [Time Schedule for Services].

It may also be helpful for users to refer to the other FIDIC publications, which can be found in the Bookshop of FIDIC's website at www.fidic.org.

- 4.1.1 The Agreement is effective from the date of receipt by the Consultant of the Client's letter of acceptance of the Consultant's proposal or the date of the latest signature necessary to complete the formal Agreement, if any, whichever is the later.

Commencement and Completion

- 4.2.1 The Services shall be commenced on the Commencement Date, shall proceed in accordance with the Time Schedule in Appendix 4 [Time Schedule for Services], and shall be completed within the Time for Completion, subject to extensions in accordance with the Agreement.

4.3

Variations

- 4.3.1 The Agreement can be varied on application by either Party by written agreement of the Parties.
- 4.3.2 If requested by the Client in writing, the Consultant shall submit proposals for varying the Services. The preparation and submission of such proposals shall be an Additional Service.
- 4.3.3 The Consultant shall not be required to commence the varied Services until such time as the Client has given his written approval of the fees associated with the varied Services.

Delays

- 4.4.1 If the Services are impeded or delayed by the Client or his contractors so as to increase the scope, cost or duration of the Services:
- (a) the Consultant shall inform the Client of the circumstances and probable effects;
 - (b) the increase in scope and/or costs shall be regarded as Additional Services; and
 - (c) the time for completion of the Services shall be increased accordingly.

Changed Circumstances

If circumstances arise for which neither the Client nor the Consultant is responsible and which make it irresponsible or impossible for the Consultant to perform in whole or in part the Services in accordance with the Agreement he shall promptly dispatch a notice to the Client.

In these circumstances:

- (a) if certain Services have to be suspended, the time for their completion shall be extended until the circumstances no longer apply plus a reasonable period not exceeding 42 days for resumption of them; and
- (b) if the speed of performing certain Services has to be reduced, the time for their completion shall be extended as may be made necessary by the circumstances.

Abandonment, Suspension or Termination

- 4.6.1 The Client may suspend all or part of the Services or terminate the Agreement by giving at least 56 days' notice to the Consultant, and the Consultant shall immediately make arrangements to stop the Services and minimise expenditure.
- 4.6.2 If the Consultant is, without good reason, not discharging his obligations the Client may inform the Consultant by notice stating the grounds for the notice. If a satisfactory response is not received within 21 days the Client may by a further notice terminate the Agreement provided that such further notice is given within 35 days of the Client's former notice.
- 4.6.3 After giving at least 14 days' notice to the Client, the Consultant may, by a further notice of at least 42 days, terminate the Agreement, or at his discretion, without prejudice to the right to terminate, may suspend or continue suspension of performance of the whole or part of the Services:
 - (a) when 28 days after the due date for payment of an invoice he has not received payment of that part of it which has not by that time been contested in writing; or
 - (b) when Services have been suspended under either Clause 4.5 or Clause 4.6.1 and the period of suspension has exceeded 182 days.

Corruption and Fraud

- 4.7.1 If it is shown that the Consultant is in breach of Clause 1.10 and notwithstanding any penalties or other sanctions to which the Consultant may be subject under the law of the Country, or in other jurisdictions, the Client will be entitled to terminate the Agreement in accordance with Clause 4.6.2 and the Consultant shall be deemed to have breached Clause 3.3.1.

Exceptional Services

- 4.8.1 Upon the occurrence of circumstances described in Clause 4.5 or abandonment or suspension or resumption of Services or upon termination of the Agreement otherwise than under the provisions of Clause 4.6.2 any necessary work or expense by the Consultant extra to the Normal and Additional Services shall be regarded as Exceptional Services.
- 4.8.2 The performance of Exceptional Services shall entitle the Consultant to extra time necessary for their performance and to payment for performing them.

Rights and Liabilities of Parties

- 4.9.1 Termination of the Agreement shall not prejudice or affect the accrued rights or claims and liabilities of the Parties.
- 4.9.2 After termination of the Agreement, the provisions of Clause 6.3 shall remain in force.

5 Payment

5.1 Payment to the Consultant

- 5.1.1 The Client shall pay the Consultant for Normal Services in accordance with the Conditions and with the details stated in Appendix 3 [Remuneration and Payment], and shall pay for Additional Services at rates and prices which are given in or based on those in Appendix 3 [Remuneration and Payment] so far as they are applicable but otherwise as are agreed in accordance with Clause 4.3.
- 5.1.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing the Client shall pay the Consultant in respect of Exceptional Services:
- (a) as for Additional Services for extra time spent by the Consultant's personnel in the performance of the Services; and
 - (b) the net cost of all other extra expense incurred by the Consultant.
- 5.1.3 Where the Client has required the Consultant to appoint selected consultants as the Consultant's sub-consultants, fees owed to those sub-consultants shall be due to the Consultant in addition to the Consultant's own fees.

5.2 Time for Payment

- 5.2.1 Amounts due to the Consultant shall be paid within 28 days of the Consultant's invoice unless otherwise stated in the Particular Conditions.
- 5.2.2 If the Consultant does not receive payment within the time stated in Clause 5.2.1 he shall be paid Agreed Compensation at the rate defined in the Particular Conditions compounded daily on the sum overdue and in its currency reckoned from the due date for payment of the invoice. Such Agreed Compensation shall not affect the rights of the Consultant stated in Clause 4.6.3.
- 5.2.3 The Client shall not withhold payment of any fee properly due to the Consultant without giving the Consultant a notice of his intention to withhold payment, with reasons, no later than four days prior to the date on which the fee payment becomes due. If no such notice of an intention to withhold payment is given then the Consultant shall have an enforceable contractual right to such payment.

5.3 Currencies of Payment

- 5.3.1 The currencies applicable to the Agreement are those stated in Appendix 3 [Remuneration and Payment].
- 5.3.2 If at the date of the Agreement or during the performance of the Services the conditions in the Country are such as may, contrary to the Agreement,
- (a) prevent or delay the transfer abroad of Local or Foreign Currency payments received by the Consultant in the Country; or
 - (b) restrict the availability or use of Foreign Currency in the Country; or
 - (c) impose taxes or differential rates of exchange for the transfer from abroad of Foreign Currency into the Country by the Consultant for Local Currency expenditure and subsequent re-transfer abroad of Local Currency up to the same amount such as to inhibit the Consultant in the performance of the Services or to result in financial disadvantage to him;

then the Client warrants that such circumstances shall be deemed to justify the application of Clause 4.5 if alternative financial arrangements are not made to the satisfaction of the Consultant.

Third Party Charges on the Consultant

5.4.1 Except where specified in the Particular Conditions or Appendix 3 [Remuneration and Payment]:

- (a) the Client shall whenever possible arrange that exemption is granted to the Consultant and those of his personnel who are not normally resident in the Country from any payments required by the Government or authorised third parties in the Country which arise from this Agreement in respect of:
 - (i) their remuneration
 - (ii) their imported goods other than food and drink
 - (iii) goods imported for the Services
 - (iv) documents;
- (b) whenever the Client is unsuccessful in arranging such exemption he shall reimburse the Consultant for such payments properly made;
- (c) provided that the goods when no longer required for the purpose of the Services and not the property of the Client:
 - (i) shall not be disposed of in the Country without the Client's approval;
 - (ii) shall not be exported without payment to the Client of any refund or rebate recoverable and received from the Government or authorised third parties.

Disputed Invoices

5.5.1 If any item or part of an item in an invoice submitted by the Consultant is contested by the Client, the Client shall give a notice of his intention to withhold payment with reasons and shall not delay payment on the remainder of the invoice. Clause 5.2.2 shall apply to all contested amounts which are finally determined to have been payable to the Consultant.

Independent Audit

5.6.1 The Consultant shall maintain up-to-date records which clearly identify relevant time and expense and shall make these available to the Client on reasonable request.

5.6.2 Except where the Agreement provides for lump sum payments, not later than 12 months after the completion or termination of the Services, the Client can, at notice of not less than seven days, require that a reputable firm of accountants nominated by him audit any amount claimed by the Consultant. The audit shall be conducted by attending during normal working hours at the office where the records are kept.

Liabilities

6.1

Liability and Compensation between the Parties

6.1.1 The Consultant shall only be liable to pay compensation to the Client arising out of or in connection with the Agreement if a breach of Clause 3.3.1 is established against him.

- 6.1.2 The Client shall be liable to the Consultant if a breach of his duty to the Consultant is established against the Client.
- 6.1.3 If it is considered that either Party is liable to the other, compensation shall be payable only on the following terms:
- (a) such compensation shall be limited to the amount of reasonably foreseeable loss and damage suffered as a result of such breach, but not otherwise;
 - (b) in any event, the amount of such compensation shall be limited to the amount specified in Clause 6.3.1;
 - (c) if either Party is considered to be liable jointly with third parties to the other, the proportion of compensation payable by that Party shall be limited to that proportion of liability which is attributable to his breach.

Duration of Liability

- 6.2.1 Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement or any legal requirement of the Country or any other jurisdiction (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the jurisdiction of the place of establishment of the Consultant), neither the Client nor the Consultant shall be considered liable for any loss or damage resulting from any occurrence unless a claim is formally made on him before the expiry of the relevant period stated in the Particular Conditions.

Limit of Compensation

- 6.3.1 The maximum amount of compensation payable by either Party to the other in respect of liability under Clause 6.1 is limited to the amount stated in the Particular Conditions. This limit is without prejudice to any Agreed Compensation specified under Clause 5.2.2 or otherwise imposed by the Agreement.
- 6.3.2 Each Party agrees to waive all claims against the other in so far as the aggregate of compensation which might otherwise be payable exceeds the maximum amount payable.
- 6.3.3 If either Party makes a claim for compensation against the other Party and this is not established the claimant shall fully reimburse the other for his costs incurred as a result of the claim.

Indemnity

- 6.4.1 So far as the law governing this Agreement permits, the Client shall indemnify the Consultant against the adverse effects of all claims including claims by third parties which arise out of or in connection with the Agreement including any made after the expiry of the period of liability referred to in Clause 6.2, except insofar as they are covered by the insurances arranged under the terms of Clause 7.1.

Exceptions

- 6.4.1 Clauses 6.3 and 6.4 do not apply to claims arising:
- (a) from deliberate default, fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation or reckless misconduct, or
 - (b) otherwise than in connection with the performance of obligations under the Agreement.

7 Insurance

- 7.1 Insurance for Liability and Indemnity
- 7.1.1 At the written request of the Client the Consultant shall make reasonable efforts to:
- (a) insure against his liability under Clause 6.1; or
 - (b) increase his insurance against liability under Clause 6.1 over that for which he was insured at the date of the Client's first invitation to him for a proposal for the Services; and
 - (c) insure against public/third party liability; or
 - (d) increase his insurance against public/third party liability over that for which he was insured at the date of the Client's first invitation to him for a proposal for the Services; and
 - (e) insure or increase any other insurance required by the Client.
- 7.1.2 The cost of the insurances arising under this Clause 7.1 known at the time of appointment shall be deemed to be incorporated into the Consultant's fees.
- 7.1.3 Any increase or variation in such insurances arising under this Clause 7.1 after the appointment has been agreed shall be at the expense of the Client.
- 7.2 Insurance of Client's Property
- 7.2.1 At the written request of the Client the Consultant shall make reasonable efforts to insure on terms acceptable to the Client:
- (a) against loss or damage to the property of the Client supplied or paid for under Clause 2.5; and/or
 - (b) against liabilities arising out of the use of such property.
- 7.2.2 The cost of the insurances arising under this Clause 7.2 known at the time of appointment shall be deemed to be incorporated into the Consultant's fees.
- 7.2.3 Any increase or variation in such insurances arising under this Clause 7.2 after the appointment has been agreed shall be at the expense of the Client.

8 Disputes and Arbitration

- 8.1 Amicable Dispute Resolution
- 8.1.1 If any dispute arises out of or in connection with this Agreement, representatives of the Parties with authority to settle the dispute will, within 14 days of a written request from one Party to the other, meet in a good faith effort to resolve the dispute. If the dispute is not resolved at that meeting, the Parties will attempt to settle it by mediation in accordance with Clause 8.2.
- 8.2 Mediation
- 8.2.1 Unless otherwise agreed between the Parties or stated in the Particular Conditions, the Parties shall attempt to agree upon a neutral mediator from a panel list held by the independent mediation centre named in the Particular Conditions. Should the Parties be unable to agree within 14 days of a notice from one Party to the other requesting mediation then either Party may request that a mediator be appointed by the President of FIDIC.

The appointment by the President shall be binding on the Parties unless they agree to another named mediator at any time.

- 8.2.2 When the mediator has been appointed on his terms and conditions of engagement, either Party can initiate the mediation by giving the other Party a notice in writing requesting a start to the mediation. The mediation will start not later than 21 days after the date of the notice.
- 8.2.3 The mediation shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures required by the appointed mediator unless stipulated otherwise in the Particular Conditions. If the procedures are stated in the Particular Conditions, then the appointed mediator shall be required to follow those procedures but shall at any time be able to propose to the Parties for their joint approval any alternative procedures.
- 8.2.4 All negotiations or discussions carried out in the mediation shall be conducted in confidence and are not to be referred to in any concurrent or subsequent proceedings, unless they conclude with a written legally binding agreement. If the Parties accept the mediator's recommendations, or otherwise reach agreement on the resolution of the dispute, such agreement shall be recorded in writing and, once signed by the designated representatives, shall be binding on the Parties.
- 8.2.5 If no agreement is reached, either Party may invite the mediator to provide to both Parties a non-binding opinion in writing on the dispute. Such opinion shall not be used in evidence in any concurrent or subsequent proceedings, without the prior written consent of both Parties.
- 8.2.6 The Parties will bear their own costs of preparing and submitting evidence to the mediator. The costs of the mediation and of the mediator's services shall be borne equally between the Parties unless otherwise agreed and recorded in accordance with Clause 8.2.3.
- 8.2.7 No Party may commence an arbitration of any dispute relating to this Agreement until it has attempted to settle the dispute with the other Party by mediation and either the mediation has terminated or the other Party has failed to participate in the mediation, provided, however, that either Party may commence arbitration if the dispute has not been settled within 90 days of the giving of the notice under Clause 8.2.2.

Arbitration

- 8.3.1 If the mediation fails then the Parties will attempt jointly to make a written record of those matters (if any) relating to the dispute which have been agreed to by them, for submission in any later arbitration. The mediator's role will cease, at the latest, upon the commencement of any arbitration. The mediator will not be available to appear as a witness in the arbitration, nor to provide any additional evidence obtained during the mediation.
- 8.3.2 Unless stated otherwise in the Particular Conditions, any arbitration arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be undertaken under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce by one or more arbitrators appointed in accordance with the said Rules.
